“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” Mark 3:34

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

A lot of people are talking to YOUR children about GOD. Shouldn’t YOU be on of them?"

Dear Grandma & Grandpa,

When we are with you, we always have fun.
You make us feel we’re your special ones!
We can tell by the kindness in your smiles,
You recall how things look through the eyes of a child.

If we really need a hug or two,
we know that we can depend on you.
Giving hugs is what grandparents do best,
and you do it better than all the rest!

Here is a secret, and it is true-
Grandma & Grandpa
our hearts belong to you!

New Jersey Adoption Law Has Changed—What You Need to Know:

For well over a century, the Catholic Church in New Jersey has provided adoption services. Throughout all those years, the Church promised to honor the privacy of birth parents and adoptees. That promise of privacy also was assured by law and affirmed by the state Superior Court. Those promises can no longer be kept. On May 27, 2014, a new law took effect that will allow adoptees and certain relatives to request and obtain the names of their biological parents beginning January 1, 2017.

Any birth parents who wish to preserve their privacy must submit a Redaction Request Form to the New Jersey Department of Health no later than December 31, 2016. By filing this form, birth parents will be able to keep their names off any documents provided by the State to adoptees or anyone else. The state made the Redaction Request Form public on August 3, 2015. The form can be downloaded at: http://njnj.gov/health/forms/reg-36c.pdf

If you know a person who placed a child for adoption, please tell them that if they do not file a Redaction Request Form, their name and other information could be given to the adoptee. Anyone needing assistance can call a HELPLINE at 609-989-4809.
