Year of Spiritual Renewal and Awakening of Faith

At the Evening Prayer Service on Wednesday, December 12th, 2018 each parish received a traveling icon of Our Lady of Guadalupe with devotional items for private prayer and devotion.

As part of our preparation year for the Consecration of our Diocese to Jesus through Our Lady of Guadalupe, you may host the “Our Lady of Guadalupe Icon” in your home. The Traveling Bag of Our Lady of Guadalupe contains everything necessary for you to devote time each day in prayer, praise and adoration to God, Jesus and our Virgin Mother of Guadalupe with confidence that they will guide us and strengthen us in our mission to evangelize all people to our Lord Jesus Christ and that the consecration of our Diocese will bear abundant fruit.

If you would like to host the icon in your home for private prayer and devotion, please pick up a flyer from the desk at the entrances of both worship sites and return the form to the parish office or email info.stanthony1@gmail.com. The icon can be picked up on Thursday and returned the following Tuesday during office hours.

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37

This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

Next week, July 20th—21st our second collection is for the Debt Reduction—Diocesan Assessment. Please be as generous as your means allow.

Where ever you travel this summer, remember to get a bulletin (signed by the celebrant or deacon) each weekend.

Gospel Meditation—15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Loving isn’t too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to “Love your neighbor as yourself” seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister “just because.” There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus’ day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But “exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant” isn’t the example Jesus gives.

“A man fell victim to robbers...they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.: The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man’s care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of other? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it’s an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won’t stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can’t help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be “the one who treated him with mercy.”

While planning your vacation, remember it’s easy to locate a Catholic Church for Mass while you’re away.

Just log on to www.catholicmasstime.org; www.thecatholicdirectory.com; or catholic-mass-times.com You’ll be able to locate the Church closest to where you’ll be throughout the United States.
