If you have requested a Mass to be celebrated you have the right to present the bread and wine that will become the Body and Blood of Christ during that particular celebration of Mass. If you would like to fulfill this responsibility, please inform one of the Ministers of Hospitality (Ushers) before Mass. If you don’t inform the Ministers of Hospitality, they will ask another person to fulfill that responsibility. Thank you for helping the Ministers of Hospitality in this matter.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

When Pope Francis announced in April 2015 there would be an Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy beginning December 8, he called Catholics across the globe to embark on “a journey that starts with a spiritual conversion.” As our Lenten journey begins, we, the baptized faithful, have a special opportunity to accept this personal invitation to join our Holy Father in responding to this constant call to conversion in our own lives.

Fortunately, there are many simple but impactful ways to foster this inner conversion, to draw nearer to the gift of our Catholic faith, to experience the infinite love and mercy of Christ and, in turn, to share his love and mercy with others whom we encounter. As we, the Church, enter into this most sacred time of penance, reflection and fasting, I offer the following suggestions for consideration:

Set aside time to pray. A good rule of thumb is to take fifteen minutes each day for prayer in a place free of technology and distraction. During that time, try to be open to the presence of the Risen Christ. Meditate on the gift of the breath of God’s life in all of creation and offer God your thanks. Consider the depth of God’s love. He became one of us, suffered, died, and rose from the dead so that we may live!

Plan a pilgrimage to a shrine or significant place that may lead to spiritual conversion. During this Year of Mercy, I have designated ten worship sites in the diocese as places of pilgrimage; each location has designated a Holy Door. Pilgrims who travel to these places will find a welcoming community and have prayerful opportunities to experience God’s extravagant merciful love.

Acknowledge sins and seek forgiveness through the Sacrament of Penance. Whether you are a regular penitent or have been away from the Church or the Sacrament for a while, Lent is a perfect time to experience this very intimate encounter with God’s mercy that is intended to lead to one’s spiritual conversion. Every time we sin, we hurt ourselves, other people, and God. In the Sacrament of Penance, we acknowledge our sins, express our sorrow, receive the forgiveness of Christ and his Church and resolve to do better in the future.

Welcome the stranger. We are living at a time when many are fearful of the stranger. This very human response to world events is understandable; however, I encourage you, “Do not be afraid!” During Lent, let us consider the many strangers in our midst, locally and afar, and take time to reflect on how the Gospel calls each of us to respond to protect the life and dignity of the human person. This is an ideal time to find ways to advocate for refugees, migrants, unaccompanied children, and victims of human trafficking with a welcoming spirit, in unity with our Holy Father.

Demonstrate compassion for the outcast. Many are lonely, homeless and rejected. Do you know anyone who may be considered an outcast by society? How does the Gospel call you to respond to these individuals with compassion?

Bring hope to the poor. So many among us are not able to afford basic shelter, basic health services, and good nutrition. Where are the poor near you? How can you assist them? How does the Gospel call you to bring Christ our Hope to these poor?

And so, as we begin this season of Lent, I urge you to consider entering more deeply into the Jubilee of Mercy by opening your heart to experience the infinite love and mercy of Christ and by finding ways to express the same unconditional love and mercy toward others. Then, with spiritual conversion, your celebration of Easter will be filled with the joy of the Risen Christ.

Jesus Christ yesterday, today and forever!

Lenten Instructions - 2016

Lent allows each of us to let our Catholic tradition of fasting and abstaining be an important reminder of what it means to suffer or to be without. This liturgical season is a blessed opportunity for us to unite with our brothers and sisters who are hungry, poor, homeless, or living on the fringes of society and to draw near to all those who suffer from illness, affliction, addiction or other serious burden. The following is a reminder of the Lenten instructions to use as a guide as we unite with those who suffer, near and far.

So that the Church of Metuchen may be spiritually one in a common observance of Lent, the following days of fast and abstinence are to be observed by all Catholics of the Diocese who enjoy the blessings of good health:

1. The days of fast and abstinence are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

3. From the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday until the celebration of the Easter Vigil on the evening of Holy Saturday, the Easter fast is suggested so that, with uplifted and welcoming hearts, we may be ready to celebrate the joys of the Resurrection. This ancient tradition, intimately connected with the Rites of Holy Week and the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is encouraged, especially in those places baptizing catechumens at the Easter Vigil.

The obligation to fast applies only to Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. To fast in the Catholic tradition means to limit oneself to one full meal during the day so as to experience hunger.

The obligation of abstinence affects all Catholics who have reached the age of 14. Abstinence in the Catholic tradition means to abstain from meat.

The obligation of fast and abstinence, as a whole, is a serious obligation. While failure to observe any penitential day in itself may not be considered serious, the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of them without good cause, would be considered a grave matter. Those unable to abstain for a valid reason on any given Friday of Lent are asked to perform some other penitential act, or to abstain on another day.

My faithful brothers and sisters, in our fasting and abstaining this Lent, I pray that we each may choose to embrace this small suffering rather than accept it with misery or complaint. For, if we are joyful in our Lenten observances, we will be granted an opportunity to more fully understand the true sacrifice that Jesus Christ made for all humanity by accepting death on the cross in order to gain our eternal salvation.
