A Mother’s Love Reflection

A mother’s love is important for every child to see, to hold, to touch, to kiss their cheeks, her way for them to be.

A love that is so gentle, a love that is so pure, a love that only a Mother’s Love is felt and will endure.

She knows your every weakness, she knows your every pain, she knows a mother’s love for you has everything to gain.

You see her ill to do what’s right and hope you don’t do wrong, but if you do, a Mother’s love forgives and just goes on.

Parents of young children spend a lot of time teaching them manners. It is part of the socialization process in which three-, four-, and five-year-olds learn to come outside of themselves. They begin to recognize that there are others in the world, and that unlike in their infancy when all attention was focused on them, they now discover that they must interact with others who also have a claim on the social order. By teaching young children not only the words, but also the concepts of "please" and "thank you," parents assist their youngsters in finding a place in society. Children learn that they need to share, that not everything belongs to them. They discover that they must interact with others to get things to work properly. "Please" and "thank you" acknowledges that outsiders also have rights.

All this brings us to Sunday's Gospel. There are only a few places in the New Testament in which we actually hear Jesus pray. The Gospel today is one of those. As he addresses the Father he prays not only for the disciples gathered with him at the Last Supper, but he also prays for us. He asks that we pray. The Gospel today is one of those. As he addresses the Father, he prays not only for the disciples gathered with him at the Last Supper, but he also prays for us. He asks that we pray. The Gospel today is one of those. As he addresses the Father, he prays not only for the disciples gathered with him at the Last Supper, but he also prays for us. He asks that we pray.

"Please" and "thank you" are key words in prayer. They are actually part of three of the four traditional forms of prayer. Petition (asking for ourselves) and Intercession (asking on behalf of others) are "please." A prayer of thanksgiving is, of course, "thank you." The fourth type of prayer isadoration or praise. In his prayer, Jesus is interceding for us with his Father. It is the kind of prayer we can emulate, getting us out of ourselves as we ask God to be attentive to the needs of so many others in this world.

STewardship: God’s Plan for Giving
Offertory of May 1, 2016 $ 5,639.00

“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.” Revelation 22:13

This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do. Not only when I am at Mass and parish activities, but when I am in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is a lifestyle, it’s how I make all my decisions.
